Azalea Festival Gala

Presented by The Cottage School
Founders Hall
1076 Canton Street, Roswell, GA 30075
6:30 p.m. - Tickets $100 per person
404-392-7609

The Roswell Azalea Festival Gala will help kick off the festival on Saturday honoring the Roswell Historical Society. Over the last 40 years, the Society has amassed considerable historic holdings relating to the city of Roswell and its environs in their research library and archives while sponsoring focus projects to restore Old Roswell Cemetery and the Hembree Farm House. This festive event begins with a reception and a performance by the Briefcase Brigade. This group of business men, in sunglasses and carrying briefcases, is known for the entertaining line dance they perform annually in the Christmas Parade down Peachtree to raise money for Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. They put on a great performance! Most of all, they add a lot of enjoyment for those present. This is a "don't miss" event with dinner catered by Talk of the Town, dancing to Fly Betty Band, lively conversations and so much fun! A VIP Reception will recognize the Sponsors.
